

Follow up of the 3rd NEAT Meeting

Italian Vets Meet NEAT

Dear NEAT Partners,

The 3rd NEAT Meeting in Cesenatico, Italy (September 7 and 8 2015), will be followed by the:

Workshop

Italian Vets Meet NEAT

organized by the Italian Partners (Maurizio Aragrande and Massimo Canali, Dept. of Food Sciences and Technologies, DISTAL) on behalf of the School of Agriculture and Veterinary Medicine of the Bologna University. The workshop is meant to be a round table where NEAT partners meet selected representatives of the Italian veterinary environment (veterinary professional bodies, public institutions operating in animal health, Schools and Faculties of Veterinary Medicine, etc.) to discuss about the needs of economic training in the veterinary profession in Italy. NEAT Representatives will introduce NEAT mission, activities and achievements, while invited testimonials will provide their views on the subjects under discussion.

Workshop venue & date: University of Bologna premises, Bologna, 9th Sep 2015, 10h.00 to 13h.30.

The participation is open. Beside WG Leaders and/or Co-Leaders, those who are interested in future NEAT developments and collaborations are all invited.

NEAT Meeting participants can travel by train from Cesenatico to Bologna on September 8th afternoon or on the 9th early in the morning (www.trenitalia.com). Please remember to reserve plain and hotel consequently. A bus service is available from Bologna Central Railway Station to Bologna "G. Marconi" Airport (<http://www.tper.it/content/linea-blq-aeroporto-stazione-centrale>). Once adhesions are collected we will come up with logistic information for the day.

For organizational reasons we ask to confirm your participation to Maurizio Aragrande (maurizio.aragrande@unibo.it) and Massimo Canali (massimo.canali2@unibo.it) possibly by next May 31st.

See you in Bologna!

Maurizio Aragrande
