

Second NEAT Annual Meeting
When	14 and 15 October 2014
Where	Forum, Wageningen, The Netherlands

Programme Day 1 – 14 October 2014
8:30-9:00	Welcome and introduction
9:00-12:30, including coffee/tea break	Teaching level 1: Economics for day-one veterinarians Validating developed teaching materials in parallel sessions
	Parallel Session 1 The role of a veterinarian from an economic perspective	Parallel Session 2 Resources for veterinary work	Parallel Session 3 The benefits of veterinary activity / the value of animals
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-17:00, including coffee/tea break	Teaching level 1: Economics for day-one veterinarians Validating developed teaching materials in parallel sessions
	Parallel Session 4 Costs of veterinary activity	Parallel Session 5 Decision-making context
17:00	Closure
18:30	Dinner at Colors World Food in Wageningen for those who subscribed

Programme Day 2 – 15 October 2014

8:30-10:30	Defining topics for two additional teaching levels in parallel sessions
	Parallel Session 1 Teaching level 2: Economics for veterinarians who advice on specific problems on request by farmers of production animals	Parallel Session 2 Teaching level 3: Economics for veterinarians who provide generic advice to farmers, including setting of goals
10:30-11:00	Coffee/Tea Break
11:00-11:20	Jonathan Rushton: Update on NEAT
11:20-11:40	Johannes Ripperger: Reporting NEAT
11:40-12:00	Elizabeth Jackson: Dissemination NEAT
12:00-12:20	Renée Filius: Advantages and challenges of on-line teaching
12:20-13:00	Discussion presented topics and closure second NEAT annual meeting
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-17:00	Management board meeting, including reporting from other work packages	